

Of Interest to Women.

A DAINY DIMITY WAIST.
DESIGN BY MAY MANTION.
4TH BLOUSE OR SHIRT WAIST.

Dainty shirt waists made of thin materials are always pretty and attractive. This one includes one of the new long-sleeved yokes and is made of white dimity dotted with blue. The sleeves are arranged on exceptionally becoming lines, those at the back giving a fitting effect. To make the waist for a woman of medium size will be required 5 1/2 yards of material 21, 4 3/4 yards 27 or 2 3/4 yards 44 inches wide. A May Mantion pattern, 411 sizes 32 to 40, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

As orders are filled from the East, it will require about ten days from receipt of order to receive patterns.

Mrs. George Moore of this city arrived at London April 20 on the steamship Philadelphia. After visiting in Paris and Switzerland they will sail for New York, arriving in Salt Lake City about the 1st.

One of the very pleasant events of the afternoon was the linen given by Mrs. V. P. Hickey in honor of Miss Grace Helgeson, whose marriage takes place in June. The guest was the recipient of a number of beautiful pieces of linen as mementos of the occasion. White carnations were used in the decorations.

The marriage of Miss Louise Rowe and Dr. W. R. Greene took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowe, on First street. Only members of the immediate family were present at the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Greene will shortly be at home to their friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Darling are now at home to their friends at 159 McClelland avenue.

Last Thursday afternoon the Junior kindergarten class gave a farewell spread for the senior girls of the kindergarten.

The regular meeting of the Home Protective league will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bird, 269 East Fourth street. Mrs. Sarah Reed will give a paper on "The Ideal Home."

Anna Odessa Pieper, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pieper, was christened by the Rev. Elmer I. Goshen last Friday afternoon at the home of the parents, 726 South Seventh East.

Mrs. Annie Adams, mother of Maude Adams, and Mrs. Isabel Pitts will receive their friends informally next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pitts, 529 South Main street, from 2 to 5 o'clock. No invitations have been issued and friends are cordially invited to be present.

On Thursday next at 2:30 o'clock a called meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church will be held in the church parlors. Members are urged to be present, as business of importance will be transacted. A rummage sale is to be held by the ladies in the church annex all day Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown left yesterday for New York. After a two months' visit there they will return by way of the World's fair.

The Misses Helen Wenger and Frances Joyce of Ogden are guests of Miss Fannie Breeden for a few days.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the closing meeting of Unity club will be held. "The Recent Growth and Probable Future of Germany" will be the subject of a talk by Rabbi Reynolds; "The Literature of the Present Day—Suderman and Hauptmann," is the subject of a paper by Mrs. William H. Fish, Jr., and the musical programme will include selections from Richard Strauss, by Mrs. Agnes Osborne.

Mrs. Charles H. Anderson entertained the members of the Bible class, the Junior Daughters of the King and chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew last Wednesday afternoon in the guild parlor of St. Mark's cathedral. A musical programme, succeeded by an informal social hour, made the afternoon a very pleasant one.

The Navajo Sewing club was entertained at the home of Miss Beattie Light last Thursday afternoon. The table decorations were especially pretty, the color scheme being pink and green. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mrs. E. Pierce, Mrs. Maybelle Snow, Mrs. L. Snow, Mrs. Tingey, Mrs. Pyper and the Misses Lulu Morris and Ella Schulte.

A very pleasant party, consisting of the following, was out for a bicycle ride last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Iverson, Misses Maude Stevenson, Lucille Snow, Grace Darke, Lulu Ford, Clara Peterson, Leona George, Messrs. Dwight Grimes, Chester Grinnett, M. L. Butler, Will Evans, J. A. Hall and Robert Stevenson. The ride was given under the auspices of the Pierce Wheel club.

Mrs. V. H. Pease will entertain the Ladies of the McKee corps and their friends at her home, 675 Fourth street, Thursday, May 19.

Mrs. Schnaibe and daughters, Helen and Marie, and Mrs. Heinz of Los Angeles, Cal., were the guests of Mrs. G. Schulte this week. They left yesterday for Germany, where they intend to make their home.

Miss Pearl Frankland was very pleasantly surprised on Friday evening. Music and games were enjoyed by all. Some special music was rendered by Miss Clara Fafek. The invited guests were the Misses Nellie Quinn, Nellie Robson, Mabel Hunt, Harriet Robinson, Ella Lloyd, Addie Fletcher, Alice Fletcher, Mabel Thorpe, Jessie Ruck, Mabel Wilkens, Elzina Adams, Florence Powell, Messrs. Orson and Leo Musser, Alvin Thorpe, Jack Lizenfelt, Howard Young, Willis Woodberry, Willie Larsen, Lyle Hammond, Spooks Chaffin, Vasil and Eugene Hamer, Wessie Squires, Kennedy Eakle and Chas. McNight.

The Billie club will give a theater party, followed by a supper, on Monday evening, May 16, at a farewell to James Nelson and Helge A. Hansen, who have recently changed their residence. The former goes to Ogden and the latter to Richfield.

Mrs. George M. Bridwell left last Tuesday for St. Louis. She will join her two daughters, Miss Belle Bridwell and Mrs. Mamie Donaldson, at Council Bluffs on their way to the World's fair.

Mrs. H. E. McMonagall has moved from the Miller block to 15 East Fifth South.

Friends of Mrs. L. M. Downing will be glad to learn that she is recovering from a severe illness and expects to be able to continue the pleasurable relations with her friends which were interrupted on account of her illness.

Mme. Tully to Leave.
During the past week the parlors of Mme. Tully at the Knutsford have been daily crowded with ladies anxious to learn and see demonstrated her power of preserving or restoring the beautiful freshness of youth in the faces of her patrons. So wonderful have been the results that visitors were inclined to doubt even what they saw. This will be the last week of Mme. Tully's stay in the city, but a complete and full will be left in charge here. Demonstrations will be given daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., during the coming week at Mme. Tully's parlors, 322-324 Knutsford hotel.
